

The video series and guide will be posted to:

www.cuny-iie.org

Scan QR code

The videos are funded by:

Thanks to our event supporters:

- CCNY School of Education
- CCNY Dream Team
- New York State Association for Bilingual Education (NYSABE)
- Queens Public Library

CUNY - INITIATIVE ON IMMIGRATION AND EDUCATION

NOT TOO YOUNG: IMMIGRATION IN ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS

VIDEO SERIES LAUNCH

December 5, 2023 | 5:00 - 7:00 PM

The City College of New York

CU NY

INITIATIVE ON IMMIGRATION AND EDUCATION

The City College of New York  School of Education

Series Overview

The Not Too Young: Immigration in Elementary Schools Video Series shows the outcome of the NYS schools' partnership with the CUNY - Initiative on Immigration and Education (CUNY-IIE). These collaborations led to the creation of school-wide projects that center immigration and education.

The videos feature the following projects and schools:

My Story, Our Story

PS 340X

Bronx, New York

Family Literacy Program

Children's School of Rochester (CSoR)

Rochester, New York

Welcoming New Students: A Guide for Teachers, Created by Students

PS 212Q

Queens, New York

Stills from Not Too Young: Immigration in Elementary Schools video series.

Program

Welcome

Sara P. Alvarez, Associate Investigator, CUNY-IIE & Queens College

Setting the Stage

- Edwin Lamboy, Dean, CCNY School of Education
- Elisa Alvarez, Associate Commissioner, NYS Education Department Office of Bilingual Education and World Languages
- Mirza Sánchez-Medina, Deputy Chief Academic Officer for the Division of Multilingual Learners, NYC Public Schools

Screening of Videos

Recognition of Stars

Panel Discussion

Moderator:

Maite Sánchez, Associate Investigator, CUNY-IIE & Hunter College

Panelists:

- Asare & Ohema Gyampoh, Students, PS 340X & In-Tech Academy
- Jay Piper, Principal, Children's School of Rochester
- Liam Lizárraga, Student, PS 212Q
- Maria Acosta, Parent Coordinator, PS 340X
- Marina Velasquez, Bilingual Teacher, PS 212Q
- Tatyana Kleyn, Director, CUNY-IIE & The City College of New York

Reception in Aaron Davis Hall Lobby

Food and beverages from La Suegra de Dyckman